Friendship Force

Learning about other states and countries through cultural exchanges

Did you know that 7 of our neighbors at LRF are members of Friendship Force? This international non-profit, non-political group has over 300 Clubs worldwide that engage in week-long cultural exchanges called journeys to other countries and states that involve home hosting, sharing meals and visiting local landmarks. Come learn about the Sarasota Club, its travels, as well as, the fun things members do throughout the year that don't involve traveling, that are fun and a great way to make new friends such as hosting visiting clubs, monthly meetings with informative speakers, and small group activities like wine groups, book club, "let's eat out" group, kayak group and movie group.

Coffee & danish at 9:00am * Presentation at 9:30am
